ABOUT TIM

As soon as I started capturing some of the most important occasions of people's lives, I quickly learned that photography is about more than just my gear. It's about making people feel comfortable so they can look their best. I found that stunning images come naturally when I make personal connections with a couple.

I'm deeply passionate about photographing people. Capturing honest emotion is incredibly rewarding. No matter who you are, I want you looking your best in your photographs. Everyone deserves to feel like rockstars in front of the camera. Let's chat about how we can work together to create images that you will be proud of forever!

I currently live in Chicago's Logan Square neighborhood with my wife and dog. When I'm not photographing awesome couples, I love to exercise and travel the country for live music.

TESTIMONIALS

I'm forever grateful that Tim was recommended to us by a friend. Right from the initial meeting, Tim was kind, honest, professional, and made us feel at ease. I'm SO glad Tim was with us on our wedding day. The communication leading up to the date was great, and we knew just what to expect. He made everyone feel calm and created a relaxed environment for bridal party and family group photos. The photography was one thing we did not have to worry about on our wedding day. We received so many compliments from the bridal party and guests about how nice and professional Tim was, and I couldn't agree more! He captured some very special candid moments during the ceremony and reception, which we will cherish thanks to him. We would work with him again in a heartbeat!

We had the privilege of working with Tim for our engagement and wedding photos and we couldn't be happier! Tim was responsive from the start and had great insight into locations around the city for these shoots. His easy-going and thoughtful personality made us feel comfortable in front of the camera and we hardly even noticed he was there aside from the portraits. He got us our photos back quickly so we could share them with family and friends. Tim captured our wedding day perfectly. We cannot wait to look at our photos for years to come!
